Dear Depository Receipt Holder,

Over recent months we have taken important steps forward in our visibility, resilience and long term strategic positioning. We are pleased to share the first Depository Receipt Holder newsletter of 2026, highlighting key developments that support our mission driven strategy and financial trajectory.

You are receiving this update because you have chosen to stay informed about our progress across markets, organisation and impact ambitions.

Recent highlights

Provision related to German fibre optic loans

We recently took a prudent step by recognising a significant provision for anticipated loan losses in the German fibre optic market. This reflects our commitment to transparency and sound risk management amid continued sector

Included in the Euronext AMS Next 20

Within just six months of our listing on Euronext Amsterdam, we reached an important milestone by being included in the Euronext AMS Next 20 index. This inclusion enhances our visibility among investors and strengthens our position in the capital markets supporting our ability to execute our mission-driven strategy to deliver positive impact.

Calling for a financial system that works for people and planet

We are actively supporting initiatives that aim to make the financial system more resilient, inclusive and sustainable. We back an academic initiative advocating for a digital euro, highlighting the potential benefits it could bring for financial stability, inclusion and European economic sovereignty. At the same time, we have renewed our call for a fundamental overhaul of the financial system, emphasising the need for term sustainable outcomes that benefit society and the environment.
